ANNOUNCEMENTS / ANUNCIOS:

From Pastor Steve, Thank you to everyone at Prairie Street for your affirmation, support and gift last Sunday at my farewell. The wall hanging is not only a lovely work of art, but a fitting image for me holding trees and the church together in the next stage of my work. I am grateful for the various ways you participated in our transition work, and trust that God's Spirit will continue to guide you in the next stage of your journey. May you be rooted in God's love and fruitful in Christ. With Gratitude.

Sunday, December 29 will be a special service to celebrate and give thanks to Pastor Carolyn as she completes her time as pastor of Prairie Street Mennonite Church. Remember to keep Pastor Carolyn, Anthony and their children in your prayers as they transition, the Search Committee as they continue with their work and our congregation as we embrace change. You are encouraged to bring cards of thanks for Pastor Carolyn. A basket for cards will be in the Fellowship Hall.

Ray of Hope Service is this evening, December 22, at 5:00 pm. This service of memory marks the 6th anniversary of Devante's death and will be a time to pray for peace in our community. Meet in the Fellowship Hall and be dressed to go outside for a brief time. Refreshments will follow in the Fellowship Hall.

Margaret DeLucenay has moved from rehab at Riverside Village to her daughter's home. Her new address is 52124 Winding Waters Lane, Elkhart, IN 46514
